The Municipal file (M.7. 567-06) containing the Govt order referred to by the President is herewith put up. The President of the Bangalore city Muni Council stated that in the map of the Basavanguri Extension prepared by the Sanitary Works Dept all the land extending up to the road on the 4 sides of the temple (measuring 5 acres 15 guntas) was shown as the site marked 'Anjaney temple' and that the authority assigning this land to the temple could not be traced He however recommended that permission might be given to fence the land all round. In para 2 of the office note in that file, it has been pointed out that the P statement that there is no order

No. 1126-30 / 6091-95 PWD dt 30-11-99) So no new grant of land seems to have been made to the temple in G.O. No. 2399 / Munl. 567-06-4912-9-07, ~~but as stated~~ but only permission was given to fence the land all round. The President's statement that a free grant of land has been made to the temple in 1907 ie subsequent to the Muz. From the Dy: Comr, Bangalore Dist, letter no. C. 370 & 24.11.16.

With reference to this office letter no. 8m & 2.9.13 calling for his opinion in the matter of certain sites reserved for the use of the Sri Anjaneya temple at Basavanagudi, states in 8 sites had been reserved for the use of the temple in accordance with the instructions of the Mysore Secretary in 1902, and Mr. Ramachandra Rao Scindia, the secretary to the temple committee, has offered to construct some houses & shops on the sites for the benefit of the temple in about a year and that the sites cannot, therefore, be handed over to the Municipality for disposal otherwise —

The temple already owns a compound of about 6 acres of land (vide G. O. no 2399/Mul 567-06 & 12-9-07). Kind reference is invited to the remarks of the H. Secretary on this point on page 9 of this note.

As the temple secretary Mr. Ramachandra Rao Scindia has agreed to build some shops and houses on the sites in question for the benefit of the temple, the Dy: Comr's trust the sites (8) cannot be made over to

It is a point for consideration whether the proposed shops & houses cannot conveniently be built on the large area now owned by the temple. If otherwise, the President of the Municipality will, if approved, be informed that the sites in question are required for the use of the temple and that they cannot therefore be made over to the Municipality.

The original object with which the sites in question were ordered to be reserved was that the ground should be kept open and free of houses" so that the approaches to the two temples should be kept free from buildings.

The 8 sites in question form the approach to the Anjaneya temple on the northern side and they are very close to the temple square being separated by a road 95 feet wide.

Sites are not wanting in the Bavangudi Extension for builders of houses and at the same time space is not wanting in the temple square to build a few houses for the use temple servants.

In this small "Brahman block" of ground around the temple square where there are no non-brahman houses, if, as proposed, houses and shops are built and given away to temple servants - most of whom will be non-brahmans - much inconvenience will be caused to the existing house owners. Besides separate blocks have been constituted in this Extension for Brahmans, Mussalmans, Christians, & Mixed classes &c. This point has to be considered both on Sectarian and Sanitary points of view.

In these circumstances it is a point for consideration whether will it not be better to the Municipality to reserve the 8 sites in question from sale and keep them free from rank vegetation so that the approach to the temple may be free from buildings as was originally intended.

This year the temple square was the first one to catch P infection and spread the

Sir,

Reference:- Your letter No.3132/Mis.734-11 dated the 27th June last, requesting to be informed as to how sites Nos. 80, 81, 82 and 83 in I-Block of the Basavangudi Extension directed in Muzrai Secretary's docket No. 724 dated 18-10-1902 to be reserved for the use of Sri Anjaneyaswamy temple came to be notified for sale etc.

I have the honor to state that the papers relating to the reservation of the aforesaid sites addressed to the Deputy Commissioner of Bangalore are not available in the records of this office. It is probably on this account that the said sites were notified for sale.

2. The Anjaneyaswamy temple has now a large area of open ground extending to the roads on all four sides. This area includes the free grant of land made by Government on the recommendation of the Council in their order No.2399/Ml.907-06-4 dated 12-9-1907, i.e., subsequent to the Muzrai Secretary's reference of 18th October 1902 referred to above.

3. The sites notified for sale are separated from the aforesaid area of the temple land by the " North Anjaneya temple road " and are contiguous on the north with the sites on which houses have already been built upon. There appears to be no necessity for these sites being reserved for the temple as the extensive land all round the temple has been lying waste, overgrown with rank vegetation and the wire fencing for which permission was granted in 1907 has not yet been put up.

4. There seems to be a great demand in this locality for house sites and the reservation of the sites in question and those to the west Viz, Nos. 84, 85, 86 and 87 for any purpose other than building dwelling houses is not desirable.

5. Under these circumstances I request you to be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government for the confirmation of the sale of the 4 sites already held and for the disposal of remaining 4 sites by public auction.
